

A Message to Parents:

A safer community is our common goal. We achieve this through the cooperation of our Police Department, our citizens and our local government. The safety of our children is all of our concern. This booklet, reinforced by your help will be the starting grounds for a greater understanding of the role the police officer serves in our community.

The sponsor on the cover of this booklet is proud to be part of this public service endeavor.